DECLARATION OF MATTHEW RUBENSTEIN REGARDING PREPARATION TIME BETWEEN CAPITAL INDICTMENT (OR NOTICE OF REVIEW OF PRIOR "NO SEEK") AND MEETING WITH ATTORNEY GENERAL'S CAPITAL CASE REVIEW COMMITTEE

1. I am a Capital Resource Counsel attorney in the federal public defender program and a member of the Federal Capital Trial Project. The Capital Resource Counsel and the Federal Death Penalty Resource Counsel (FDPRC) projects comprise the Federal Capital Trial Project (or "Trial Project"). Established in early 1992, a core function of the Trial Project is to provide consultation, training, and assistance to counsel and courts to improve the quality of representation and the cost-effectiveness of defense services in federal capital prosecution cases. I joined the Trial Project in 2010 as a Capital Resource Counsel attorney, was the Director of the Capital Resource Counsel (CRC) project from 2015 to 2025, and in 2025 transitioned back to a Capital Resource Counsel attorney position in the project. The Trial Project is funded and

An update to the Report states: "Many judges and defense counsel spoke with appreciation and admiration about the work of Resource Counsel. Judges emphasized their assistance in recruiting and recommending counsel for appointments and their availability to consult on matters relating to the defense, including case budgeting. Defense counsel found their knowledge, national perspective, and case-specific assistance invaluable." Report to the Committee on Defender Services, Judicial Conference of the United States, Update on the Cost and Quality of Defense Representation in Federal Death Penalty Cases (September 2010) at 63. https://perma.cc/LPH6-K8QB].

&lt;sup>1</sup> The Trial Project assigns a CRC or FDPRC attorney to work with the defense team in every federal capital eligible case as a "resource counsel." In their role as resource counsel, the CRC attorneys (full-time salaried federal defender staff) and FDPRC attorneys (part-time contractors) are not counsel of record; rather, they provide advice, assistance, and helpful information and resources to the defense team. In addition to their work as resource counsel, the CRC attorneys often serve as death-qualified "learned" counsel as part of their Project responsibilities; and the FDPRC attorneys are often appointed to serve as "learned" counsel as CJA counsel outside their role with the Project.

&lt;sup>2</sup> The work of the Trial Project is described in a report prepared by the Subcommittee on Federal Death Penalty Cases, Committee on Defender Services, Judicial Conference of the United States, Federal Death Penalty Cases: Recommendations Concerning the Cost and Quality of Defense Representation (May 1998), at 28 – 30, http://www.uscourts.gov/sites/default/files/original_spencer_report.pdf [Perma.cc archive: https://perma.cc/SU25-GWMV]. The Subcommittee report "urges the judiciary and counsel to maximize the benefits of the Federal Death Penalty Resource Counsel Project . . . , which has become essential to the delivery of high quality, cost-effective representation in death penalty cases . . . ." administered by the Defender Services Office of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts.

- 2. My responsibilities in the Federal Capital Trial Project include the monitoring of all federal capital prosecutions throughout the United States to assist in the delivery of adequate defense services to indigent capital defendants in such cases. This effort includes overseeing the collection of data on the initiation and prosecution of federal capital cases.<sup>3</sup>
- 3. Pursuant to these responsibilities, I have compiled the information in Exhibit A regarding cases authorized for capital prosecution since 2010. This information includes the date of the capital eligible indictment and the date of the meeting with the Attorney General's Capital Case Review Committee (AGCRC meeting). During the Obama, Trump (45), and Biden administrations, the average number of months<sup>4</sup> between capital eligible indictment and the AGCRC meeting was 15.0 months.
- 4. During the Trump (47) administration, the average number of months between capital eligible indictment and the AGCRC meeting for defendants that do not involve a reconsideration of a previous government "no seek" decision (cases in which the Department of Justice during the Biden administration had previously decided not to pursue the death penalty) is 5.1 months. (This calculation excludes four defendants for whom the AGCRC meeting did not occur after an indictment with capital counts. Three defendants were indicted with capital counts after their AGCRC meeting and one defendant was authorized for a capital prosecution when no AGCRC meeting occured.)
- 5. On February 5, 2025, Attorney General Bondi issued a directive ordering the review of all pending capital eligible cases in which the Department of Justice during the Biden administration had previously decided not to pursue the death penalty (cases in which the government previously filed a "no seek" notice). Using the date when these defendants were notified that the government again considered them in jeopardy for a capital prosecution – as equivalent to the date of a capital eligible indictment, the average number of months between this notification and the AGCRC meeting is 3.0 months.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, 28 U.S.C. §1746, that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed July 31, 2025.
