

3/9/99
10:40 a.m.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

97-CR-672 (S-7) (ERK)

----- X

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

BEFORE:

- against -

HON. EDWARD R. KORMAN, U.S.D.J.

GURMEET SINGH DHINSA,

PENALTY PHASE
VERDICT SHEET

Defendant.

----- X

Part I. Aggravating Factors

(Must be proved by the government beyond a reasonable doubt to jury's unanimous satisfaction.)

1. The defendant, Gurmeet Singh Dhinsa, procured the commission of the offenses by payment, or promise of payment, of a thing of pecuniary value.

Yes  No

2. The defendant, Gurmeet Singh Dhinsa, committed the offenses after substantial planning and pre-meditation to cause the death of the victim.

Yes  No

3. The defendant killed Satinderjit Singh and Manmohan Singh in an effort to obstruct justice, tamper with a witness, and in retaliation for cooperating with authorities.

Yes  No

4. The defendant has been found guilty of killing more than one person.

Yes

No

5. The defendant poses a risk of future dangerousness to the lives and safety of other persons.

Yes

No

Part II. Mitigating Factors

(Must be established by preponderance of the evidence. Jury need not be unanimous. Any one or more jurors may find and consider mitigating factors.)

1. Do one or more jurors find that others who are equally culpable in the murders of Manmohan Singh and Satinderjit Singh will not be sentenced to death and are likely to receive sentences of less than life and, therefore, to be released from prison some day?

Yes

No

2. Do one or more jurors find that if not sentenced to death, Mr. Dhinsa will spend the rest of his life in prison?

Yes

No

3. Do one or more jurors find that Mr. Dhinsa is likely to make a satisfactory adjustment to prison life?

Yes  _____ No _____

4. Do one or more jurors find that if Mr. Dhinsa receives a life sentence, he will be able to maintain a relationship with his children and other family members?

Yes  _____ No _____

5. Do one or more jurors find that other members of Mr. Dhinsa's family will suffer a loss if he is executed?

Yes  _____ No _____

6. Do one or more jurors find that Mr. Dhinsa grew up under conditions of extreme poverty?

Yes _____ No  _____

7. Do one or more jurors find that despite having engaged in criminal activity, Mr. Dhinsa has also done some good things in his life, including supporting his family and community in India?

Yes  _____ No _____

8. Do one or more jurors find that even though the jury has found Mr. Dhinsa guilty beyond a reasonable doubt of the two murders, there is some lingering or residual doubt of his guilt?

Yes

No

_____

_____

9. Do one or more jurors find that there are other factors in Mr. Dhinsa's background, record or character, or any other circumstance of the offense, that mitigate against imposition of a sentence of death?

PLEASE LIST BELOW ANY SUCH ADDITIONAL FACTORS WHICH ONE OR MORE JURORS FIND:

PART III. THE JURY'S DECISION

Does the jury unanimously sentence the defendant to death?

No

If the answer is yes, please proceed to Part IV.